Law 14-63, the "Chesapeake Regional Olympic Games Authority Act of 2001", was introduced in Council and assigned Bill No. 14-187, which was referred to the Committee on Economic Development. The Bill was adopted on first and second readings on October 16, 2001, and November 6, 2001, respectively. Signed by the Mayor on November 15, 2001, it was assigned Act No. 14-167 and transmitted to both Houses of Congress for its review. D.C. Law 14-63 became effective on February 13, 2001.

§ 2-1132. CREATION OF THE REGIONAL AUTHORITY.

(a) The Signatories hereby provide the mechanism for the creation and termination of the Chesapeake Regional Olympic Games Authority, which shall be an instrumentality of the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Virginia, the State of Maryland, and the City of Baltimore, and shall have the powers and duties set forth herein, and those additional powers and duties conferred upon it by subsequent actions of the Signatories.

(b) The Regional Authority shall come into existence by the force of this chapter when and if, and only if, the IOC awards the 2012 Olympic Games in year 2005 to WBRC 2012, as the U.S. Candidate City and the official representative of the Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia, and Baltimore region.

(c) The Regional Authority shall, if ever brought into existence, cease to exist by the force of this chapter on January 1, 2014, unless extended by substantially similar future legislation passed by each of the Signatories.

(d)(1) Until such time as the Regional Authority may be triggered into existence, the combined signatures of the Governors of Virginia and Maryland, and the Mayors of the District of Columbia and the City of Baltimore, on any and all documents necessary and appropriate to the pursuit of the 2012 Olympic Games shall be binding on future actions of the Regional Authority.

(2) For the purposes of this subsection:

(A) The above-referenced signatures may be on the same document, on separate but materially and substantially similar documents, or any combination thereof; and

(B) No individual signature shall be effective until such time as all 4 above-referenced signatures are obtained.

(Feb. 13, 2002, D.C. Law 14-63, § 3, 48 DCR 10549.)

HISTORICAL AND STATUTORY NOTES

Legislative History of Laws

For Law 14-63, see notes following § 2-1131.

§ 2-1133. REGIONAL AUTHORITY; COMPOSITION AND ORDER OF BUSINESS.

(a) The Regional Authority shall be composed of 11 voting members, as follows:

(1) The State of Maryland shall be entitled to 3 voting members, to be appointed by the Governor of Maryland.

(2) The Commonwealth of Virginia shall be entitled to 3 voting members, to be appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

(3) The District of Columbia shall be entitled to 3 voting members, to be appointed by the Mayor of the District of Columbia.

(4) The City of Baltimore shall be entitled to one voting member, to be appointed by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

(5) The Washington/Baltimore Regional 2012 Coalition, a nonprofit corporation created for the sole purpose of bringing the Olympic Games to the region, or the OCOG, shall be entitled to one voting member, to be appointed in a manner consistent with its usual procedure.

(b) Reasonable efforts shall be made to ensure that appointments of voting members and advisory members appointed under subsection (g) of this section:

(1) Are residents of the regional community with relevant and useful experience, and with sufficient time to devote to the duties of the Regional Authority, to help facilitate the successful hosting of the Olympic Games;

(2) Reflect the geographical diversity inherent in the regional nature of WBRC 2012's bid proposal;

and

(3) Reflect the cultural, ethnic, and racial diversity inherent in the Chesapeake region.

(c) Voting members shall not be financially compensated for their service on the Regional Authority; such service shall be considered voluntary. Voting members may be reimbursed by the Regional Authority for normal and customary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(d) The terms of the voting members of the Regional Authority shall be as follows:

(1) The initial terms of office of the voting members shall be 2 years from the date of appointment, and all subsequent terms of office of the voting members shall be for 2 years. Each voting member shall hold office until his or her successor shall be appointed and duly qualified. A voting member of the Regional Authority may succeed himself or herself.

(2) All vacancies in the membership of the voting members of the Regional Authority, whether caused by expiration of term of office, death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled in the same manner as that membership was originally filled. The term of any voting member appointed to fill an unexpired term shall be the term of the voting member he or she replaced.

(3) The Regional Authority shall elect from its membership a chair, a vice chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. Such officers shall serve for such terms as shall be prescribed by resolution of the Regional Authority or until their successors are elected and qualified. No voting member of the Regional Authority shall hold more than one office on the Regional Authority.

(e) The Regional Authority shall hold meetings in accordance with the following:

(1) Regular meetings of the Regional Authority shall be held on such dates and at such time and place as shall be fixed by resolution of the Regional Authority.

(2) Special meetings of the Regional Authority may be called by resolution of the Regional Authority, by the chairman or vice chairman, or upon the written request of at least 3 voting members of the Regional Authority.

(3) Written notice of all meetings shall be delivered to each voting member not less than 3 days prior to the date of such meeting in the case of regular meetings and not less than 24 hours in the case of special meetings.

(4) Each voting member should make all reasonable efforts to be in attendance at meetings called by the Regional Authority.

(5) A majority of the voting members of the Regional Authority in office shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the quorum is empowered to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the Regional Authority and no vacancy on the Regional Authority shall impair the right of the majority to act. If at a meeting there is less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place, and notice of the time and place shall be given in accordance with paragraph (3) of this subsection; provided, that if this notice period cannot reasonably be complied with, the notice, if any, of the adjourned meeting shall be given as is reasonably practical.

(6) The Regional Authority shall establish rules and regulations for its own governance not inconsistent with this chapter.

(f) The Regional Authority shall:

(1) Make provision for a system of financial accounting and controls, audits, and reports. All accounting systems and records, auditing procedures and standards, and financial reporting shall conform to generally accepted principles of governmental accounting. All financial records, reports, and documents of the Regional Authority shall be public records and open to public inspection under reasonable regulations prescribed by the Regional Authority; and

(2) Adopt a fiscal year, establish a system of accounting and financial control, designate the necessary funds for complete accountability, and specify the basis of accounting for each such fund. The Regional Authority shall cause to be prepared a financial report on all funds at least quarterly and a comprehensive report on the fiscal operations and conditions of the Regional Authority annually.

(g) The Regional Authority shall form a Regional Authority Advisory Committee, which shall be comprised of representatives from each of the local jurisdictions substantially impacted by hosting the Olympic Games in the region, in a manner to be determined by the Regional Authority.

§ 2-1135. FUNDING OF THE REGIONAL AUTHORITY.

(a) The OCOG shall provide reasonable funds for the operation of the Regional Authority and the conduct of its business in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) For the purposes of this section, payment of any insurance premiums incurred by the Regional Authority under the authority granted to it by § 2-1136 shall not be considered operations funds referred to in subsection (a) of this section. The OCOG shall pay only such insurance premiums as are reasonable.

(c) The OCOG shall not be responsible for any financial liability that the Regional Authority may incur under § 2-1136.

(d) The Regional Authority shall submit to the OCOG a planned budget for the Regional Authority's next fiscal year, adopted consistent with § 2-1133, no less than 90 days before the beginning of the next fiscal year.

HISTORICAL AND STATUTORY NOTES

Legislative History of Laws

For Law 14-63, see notes following § 2-1131.

§ 2-1136. REGIONAL AUTHORITY OVERSIGHT; ADDITIONAL POWERS.

(a) The Regional Authority, in recognition of its oversight responsibility over the OCOG, shall have access to:

- (1) The quarterly financial statements of the OCOG;
- (2) The annual business plans of the OCOG; and
- (3) All other OCOG documents necessary to achieve its oversight purpose.

(b) The Regional Authority shall have the power to enforce OCOG budgetary and planning changes when:

(1) Review by the Regional Authority of the OCOG financial statements, annual business plans, or other documents contemplated in subsection (a) of this section suggests:

(A) Economic shortfalls that would possibly trigger the Regional Authority's liability outlined in subsection (c); or

(B) The OCOG will fail to host the Olympic Games in a manner that would satisfy the requirements of the USOC or the IOC; and

(2) Such changes are supported by a majority of the voting members of the Regional Authority, notwithstanding the quorum requirements of § 2-1133(e)(5).

(c) The Regional Authority, in recognition of its duties as overseer of the OCOG, shall:

(1) Be bound by the terms of, cause the OCOG to perform, and guaranty performance of, OCOG's obligations under all documents necessary and appropriate to the pursuit of the Olympic Games;

(2) Certify the OCOG's performance of such obligations as requested by the USOC from time to time;

(3) Accept liability for the OCOG, if any, as far as required by all documents necessary and appropriate to the pursuit and hosting of the Olympic Games; provided, that:

(A) With regard to third-party tort liabilities, the OCOG will indemnify the District of Columbia against any and all such claims and provide that the District of Columbia be named as an additional insured on all appropriate insurance policies. Nothing contained herein shall in any way modify the District of Columbia's existing liability limitation; and

(B) With regard to all other liabilities arising out of this paragraph, the OCOG agrees to hold the District of Columbia harmless and indemnify the District of Columbia for any such losses. If the District of Columbia incurs any liabilities, these shall count against the total limit (or cap) on the District of Columbia's liabilities as set forth in § 2-1137(a)(3).

(4) Accept liability, if any, with the OCOG, for any financial deficit of the OCOG or the Olympic Games, as follows:

(A) The OCOG shall be responsible for any amount up to $25 million;

(B) The Regional Authority shall be liable for any amount in excess of $25 million, but not to exceed an additional $175 million; and

(C) Except as set forth in existing applicable law, the OCOG and the Regional Authority shall not be limited in their choice of funding sources for covering possible financial losses, including the purchase of insurance, if commercially available and reasonably priced.

(d) The Regional Authority, in its financial oversight and safeguard role, shall ensure:

(1) No legacy programs, funds, or accounts shall be funded from any of the proceeds of the 2012 Olympic Games until all budgetary and operational financial obligations of the OCOG and the Regional Authority for hosting the Olympic Games are first met; and

(2) No liability for any financial deficit resulting from the 2012 Olympic Games shall accrue to the Regional Authority (or the Signatories) until all budgetary or operational financial surpluses of the OCOG, if any, are applied to all outstanding financial obligations of OCOG and the Regional Authority, if any, that accrued exclusively in connection with hosting the Olympic Games.

(e) The Regional Authority, to facilitate its oversight responsibility over the OCOG, shall have the additional powers:

(1) To sue and be sued in contract and in tort;

(2) To complain and defend in all courts;

(3) To implead and be impleaded;

(4) To enter into contracts;

(5) To hire appropriate staff; and

(6) Any additional powers granted to it by act.

§ 2-1137. INDEMNIFICATION.

(a) Any liability incurred by the Regional Authority, not covered by insurance under § 2-1136(c)(4)(C), shall be further indemnified by the Signatories, in proportion to the relative economic benefit currently expected to accrue to each Signatory from hosting the Olympic Games, as follows:

(1) The State of Maryland shall be liable for 53%;

(2) The Commonwealth of Virginia shall be liable for 19%; and

(3) The District of Columbia shall be liable for 28%.

(b) Each of the Signatories may provide for its share of any possible liability in any manner it may choose, as befits each Signatory's independent commitment.

(Feb. 13, 2002, D.C. Law 14-63, § 8, 48 DCR 10549.)

§ 2-1138. COMMITMENTS OF SIGNATORIES.

(a) As appropriate to its individual jurisdiction and specific role in hosting the 2012 Olympic Games, each Signatory shall:

(1) Ensure that necessary facilities are built and transportation infrastructure improvements take place, including government funding as appropriate;

(2) Provide access to existing state/city-controlled facilities and other important resources as specified in WBRC 2012's bid proposal in accordance with applicable law and contractual obligations; and

(3) Provide adequate security, fire protection, and other government related services at a reasonable cost to ensure for the safe and orderly operation of the Olympic Games.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any financial obligation or liability that the District of Columbia may incur by virtue of this chapter shall be subject to the availability of appropriations authorized by Congress at the time the obligation or liability is created.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any provision of this chapter that grants the Regional Authority any authority, power, duty, or function that conflicts with Chapter 2 of Title 1 shall be approved by Congress prior to the exercise of that authority, power, duty, or function by the Regional Authority.
